

Revista:
Food Technology
1996
Volumen: 50 - Issue: 8

IFTs 1996 Food expo reveals the latest trends in product development

Ingredient suppliers find big business in Beverages, bagels, and more

Consumer product trends go beyond the traditional

Laboratory suppliers continue emphasis on microbial testing

Packaging suppliers offer innovative alternatives for handling and shipping of foods

Equipment manufacturers build links through technical centers

Contract laboratories are ready for action

Publishers and associations target health, safety, and nutrition

Food expo in print quick survey

Products and services exhibited by all 900+ food expo exhibitors

Ingredients / additives

Laboratory / Pilot plant equipment, instrumentation, and supplies

Processing / Packaging equipment, instrumentation, and supplies

Services to the food industry

Annual meeting presentations available on audio tape cassettes

It was a very good year

Call for 1997 Annual meeting symposia, proposals due September 1, 1996

Live from New Orleans

Emerging pathogens in the news

HACCP: Pivotal change for the meat industry